

Golf & Wine

The love for the land and its fruits, the food, the wine, the olive oil here in Tuscany are a serious business and a common talk. You will enter to the real meaning of Tuscany, visiting the wine producers in Chianti region. After this tour you will know all about Sangiovese grapes, and the other traditional vines, you will discover the wine secrets and amazing stories to never forget. Above all, play golf at the best courses of the region with their traditional small greens, olives trees and cypresses bordered fairways. Every day new people to meet, to talk to and share the experiences and in the evening nothing better than sipping your glass of wine while enjoying a perfect hilly landscape...
